The city of Columbus in Ohio in the United States of America, held an official felicitation ceremony on July 14 at the City Hall in honour of Sadhguru Jaggi Vasudev, founder of Isha Foundation for Action for Rural Rejuvenation — a project that has impacted the rural communities in Tamil Nadu.

The Action for Rural Rejuvenation is an outreach programme that provides healthcare facilities and offers effective sustainable empowerment to the inhabitants of the southern state.

It includes mobile health clinics that offers free and accessible treatment with the aid of medical staff and a yoga teacher.

The initiative also include recreational programmes that offer alternatives to alcohol abuse. It also provides a forum for social interaction, sportsmanship and sharing among the villagers.

Sadhguru Jaggi Vasudev's successful humanitarian initiatives and his outreach programmes with the United Nations with people serving the life-term imprisonment as well as destitute children has also received international attention.
