MUMBAI: Fever 104 FM partnered with the Isha Foundation and presented a musical evening for Delhities with Zila Khan, the high priestess of Sufi Music & Sounds at Kamani Auditorium in New Delhi on Sunday, 2nd November. Zila Khan was at the Fever 104 studios, in Delhi on Saturday, 1st November.

Speaking on the occasion, Mr. Neeraj Chaturvedi, Station Head, Fever 104 FM Delhi said, “We are privileged to partner the Isha Foundation for the social cause of AIDS awareness and rural development. At the same time, the concert will be a Sufi delight for our listeners. We hope to bring many more musical treats to Delhi.”

The funds raised by the concert will be used to undertake various social outreach projects of Isha Foundation. Isha Foundation is an international nonprofit organization dedicated to Rural Rejuvenation, promoting HIV/AIDS awareness and Rural Crafts, Educational Reforms, Environmental Stewardship and Individual rejuvenation for holistic and healthy living.
