

Explore, Love, Happiness, Life Purpose, and Destiny with World Renowned Yogi and Mystic, Sadhguru

Eat, Pray, Love's celebrated 'wise cowboy', Richard Vogt aka 'Richard from Texas' invites the public to spend two moonlit evenings basking in blissful meditations and looking at life's most profound questions.

Tampa, FL (PRWEB) February 26, 2010 -- Thousands will soon have the opportunity to explore life's most fascinating questions at a most unexpected place, Tampa's USF Soccer Stadium. In an unique two-evening event entitled "Mystic Eye-Vision of the Beyond," Sadhguru, a world-renowned yogi and profound mystic, will empower you to delve within and find your utmost potential, wisdom and bliss. The Mystic Eye program includes powerful meditations guided by Sadhguru.

“Since I began practicing meditation with Sadhguru, I have developed an ever-deepening sense of peace that allows me to live unaffected by life’s ups and downs. If I do get caught by something, I am able to get myself 'off the hook.' I don’t dangle at the mercy of my mind or my emotions,” said Richard Vogt aka ‘Richard from Texas’ of bestselling novel Eat, Pray, Love. “Mystic Eye is truly a special occasion to be with Sadhguru, ask questions, and meditate with his guidance. I hope many will come and make use of this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity.”

'Is there absolute love? How can I find my soul-mate? What is my life purpose? Was I born with a certain destiny? Is there life after death? What is enlightenment?' Participants are asked to bring their most intriguing lifelong questions, which they can also submit online for Sadhguru to answer during the Mystic Eye event.
