Sadhguru condoles Baba

Sadhguru Jaggi Vasudev, in a condolence message to City Express, said that Satya Sai Baba has been the phenomenon of the 20th century, not only in India but across the world. As a proponent of egalitarian values he strived to create a world free of the divisions of caste, creed, religion, race and gender. His social initiatives, notably in the fields of education and public health, have been a great service to the world. His demise brings to a close an enigmatic persona that has been a great inspiration and the source of faith for a whole multitude of people across the world.
