A congratulatory message

Sadhguru Jaggi Vasudev, in a message to City Express congratulated the people of Tamil Nadu for having exercised their voting franchise justly.

He stated that the people have voted beyond caste, creed, religion and even cash considerations.

He noted that the election results further affirm that people cannot be deceived, cannot be lured and cannot be taken for granted.

Sadhguru pointed out that this will also be a constant reminder for a sincere, honest and corruption-free governance.

He further prayed for divine grace to be with Jayalalithaa and hoped that the new Government will bring about prosperity and well-being of the people.
