Jaggi decries action on Ramdev

Coimbatore: Sadhguru Jaggi Vasudev of the Coimbatore-based Isha Foundation came down strongly on the Union government for “adopting undemocratic measures” to cripple Baba Ramdev’s fast in Delhi and demanded steps to curb high-level corruption.

In a statement, Vasudev termed the late-night operation by Delhi police to remove Ramdev from the protest venue as an “atrocity that no democracy can afford”. He said it was a brutal breaking up of a peaceful congregation of people, who were protesting for a cause. TNN
