The Fight Is On Against Corruption

J Jackson

Coimbatore: In Coimbatore, students of Isha Samskrti gave a Kalaripayattu demonstration in front of Hotel Tamil Nadu, Gandhipuram, at a function organised by Isha Yoga Center to announce their solidarity with Anna Hazare’s fight against corruption. The event that began with the Tamil Nadu state anthem, saw around 200 people from all walks of life.

A video of Sadguru’s message was streamed at the venue. In his message he said, “Corruption has become a national malice. Anna’s movement fortunately has brought focus and also stoked hope in the hearts of the Indian people. These movements may not have a perfect solution for a corruption-free India, but they are vital for firing the imagination of the people rather than making corruption an accepted norm of our polity and society.” People who attended the event included Vijayanand, founder and president of Fifth pillar, and Arjun Sampath, president, Hindu Makkal Katchi.

Students of Isha Foundation perform Kalaripayattu in Coimbatore on Monday to express solidarity with Anna Hazare’s fast for Jan Lokpal bill.