GETTING DOWN AND DIRTY

On the cricketing field, Virender Sehwag’s ‘agricultural’ shots would pay rich dividends. We are hoping that his action above will also touch great heights. The daredevil bat was joyfully getting his hands dirty planting trees during his visit to Isha Yoga Centre, Coimbatore. The main purpose of his visit to the centre was to observe the three different models of schooling run by the organisation. Wondering why? Sehwag runs an educational institution in Haryana.
