Pongal celebrations at Isha

Staff Reporter

COIMBATORE: Isha Foundation celebrated Pongal in a different manner on Tuesday with nearly 42,000 people from Perur, Vadavalli and areas nearby the Foundation danced on the streets to bring out the spirit of Pongal.

According to a release, as many as 5,000 Isha volunteers joined folk dancers from the ‘Chennai Sangamam’ group and led the public.

Traditional folk dances were taught to the public who learnt the steps and made it a lively experience for all. There were also traditional food and games, the release adds.