200 biz leaders meet in city

Coimbatore: More than 200 business leaders and entrepreneurs gathered at the annual insight leadership programme held at the Isha Yoga Centre in the city. Ratan Tata, chairman emeritus, Tata Sons, was among the prominent leaders who participated. The three-day leadership programme, which concluded on Sunday, was conducted as part of Isha Foundation’s education programme.

“To be an entrepreneur, there has to be an inner driving force that cannot come from a textbook. Figure out what you want to do and have the courage to pursue your goals,” said Tata to the audience, elaborating on a company’s responsibility to the community and nation.

Kiran Bedi, retired IPS officer, A Sivathanu Pillai, scientist, Venkatesan, former chairman of Microsoft and many other eminent business personalities shared their experiences. TNN
