Cleanliness drive organised

More than 300 volunteers from Round Table 186, ARC Group, Coimbatore city police and Oli Awareness Movement participated in Green Kovai Clean Kovai, a cleanliness drive near Nehru Stadium on Sunday morning. The event was organised to bring awareness in the city. Also, over a hundred volunteers and residents of Isha Yoga Center gathered to clean up Gandhi colony village next to Semmedu. Plastic waste was removed by the volunteers and free nylon bags were also provided to all the households. “We have instructed the residents to collect plastic waste in nylon bags. Every week the plastic waste would be collected by Isha Yoga Center and sent for recycling,” said a volunteer. The city police commissioner AK Viswanathan, corporation commissioner K Vijay Karthikeyan and the volunteers were participated.
