Isha Navaratri music, dance festival on

DC CORRESPONDENT
COIMBATORE, OCT. 4

A breathtaking performance of Hindustani music by Prashant and Manjunath set the tone for the Navrathri celebrations at Linga Bhairavi, Isha Yoga Center on the second day of Navaratri celebrations. On the third day, a spellbound Bharatanatyam performance by P. Praveen Kumar was presented. Hailing from a family of artists, Praveen Kumar showed an inclination towards arts and dance at a very young age. After coming under the guidance of the late Narmada in Bengaluru, he decided to dedicate himself wholeheartedly to this ancient dance form. He is an accomplished Nattuvanar and choreographer.

The Linga Bhairavi temple is geared up to host the nine-day festival.

A series of events and cultural programme have been lined up on all nine days. Apart from traditional music and dances, folk performances are also going to be staged.

As part of the ongoing Navaratri celebrations at Isha Yoga Centre, Hindustani concert by artistes Prashant and Manjunath was held on Monday evening in Coimbatore. —DC