Honour for Isha Vidhya

Isha Vidhya, a non-profit education initiative based in Coimbatore, has won the first prize in the world list of NGO organisations that have been registered with Globalgiving. Isha Vidhya is trying to bridge the gap between the rural and urban student by exposing them to English and computer education and have come up with a unique curriculum to teach kids, the NGO officials said. The NGO runs nine schools in various villages in the southern part of India.
