Sadhguru, founder of Isha Foundation participated in this 69th Republic Day celebration and hoisted the National flag organized by Isha Home School.

Ashram residents, members of the public, tribal villagers and devotees participated in the celebrations organized in front of Malai Vasal, entrance of 112- ft Adiyogi at Isha Yoga Center.

In his Republic Day message, Sadhguru said “Bharat - a nation beyond all definitions, an antiquity beyond legends has witnessed peaks of possibilities, and poignant pains through these many millennia of its existence. In these 70 years of Independence, first few decades went in the pains of partition, and the struggles for survival as a nation. In the last 20, 25 years, we’ve been in a developmental mode. Now India stands on a threshold, where it can transition to a more conscious inclusive growth.”

As a generation of people in this country, this is what we have to show that we have the courage and commitment to walk the distance and make this into a great nation. Let's make it happen,” he added.

Meanwhile, educational institutions run by Sri Krishna Institutions also celebrated 69th Republic Day at their campus.

As part of the celebrations, the management and heads of the institutions educated students who are the future citizens of the nation on importance of the Republic, contributions of national leaders, role of Indian Constitution and the role of citizens in a democracy.

At the Avinashilingam Institute for Home Science and Higher Education for Women, vice chancellor Dr Premavathivijayan, hoisted the national flag as part of the Republic Day celebrations. Chief guest Prof. S.C. Sharma, delivered the republic day address.

Mr. Sathyaparakash, Deputy General Manager, State Bank of India, Coimbatore zone, hoisted the tricolor on the 69th Republic Day celebrations at the zonal office here on Friday.
