

SADHGURU ASSEMBLES 1,500 DEVOTEES

REPUBLICA, KATHMANDU

Sadhguru Jaggi Vasudev, founder of Isha Foundation, arrived in Kathmandu with an entourage of 1300 devotees after completing the Kailash-Manasarovar journey. The voyage was an inward journey of self-realization says, the press statement released by Himanshu P Shah.

On the request of the Nepali devotees, Sadhguru held a satsang at Sanepa. An overwhelming number of devotees, approximately 1500, had lined up to receive his grace.

The press release further added that he was also starting a massive movement called 'Youth and Truth', to inspire and empower the youth, beginning September 3. For this massive movement, Sadhguru will be traveling all over India, visiting 18 major universities.

