

Isha agro forestry's one-day crop cultivation session

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Salem

ISHA Agro Forestry conducted one day tree crop cultivation practical training and seminar at Kancheri Malai Pudur on Sunday. Around 600 farmers from various districts in all over Tamil Nadu participated in this training program. Both the training and the seminar were conducted by the pioneer farmers in organic farming.

During the first session, the welcome speech was given by swami Srimukha, coordinator of Isha Agro Movement, the ongoing projects and the works done by Isha Agro Forestry was given by Tamilmaran, Coordinator, Isha Agro Forestry. Pioneer organic farmers gave a speech regarding importance of tree crop cultivation. During the second session, pioneer farmer from Pudukottai Karupayya spoke on the cultivation of Neem in rain fed land. In third session, speech on pepper cultivation was given and Saravanan, Forest officer, spoke on the government procedures for tree cultivation.