

Sadhguru back in Isha after rally

Cauvery calling

Municipal administration minister S.P. Velumani on Wednesday said the needed saplings for 'Cauvery calling' project will be readily provided

Coimbatore: Having completed the over 3,000 km motorcycle rally for the 'Cauvery Calling' initiative, Sadhguru, received a traditional welcome at Perur, Patchapalayam, Kalampalayam, Madhampatti, Alandurai High School Alandurai, Mathavarayapuram, Iruttupallam and Semmedu, on his way to the yoga center on Tuesday night. Thousands of villagers including panchayat heads welcomed the spiritual head of Isha Foundation. Subsequently, on reaching Adiyogi, Sadhguru was welcomed with the customary Aarathi by local communities, Isha residents and bhramacharis. Members of the rural communities, including shop owners of shops that line the pathway to Adiyogi have contributed 1,303 trees for 'Cauvery Calling' project.
