Vanashri project launched in Vellingiri hills

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE

Coimbatore, May 28: From next year onwards, cloth bags would be distributed to devotees who came to Poondi for climbing the Vellingiri hills, according to Sadguru Jaggi Vasudev, Founder of the Isha Yoga Centre.

Presiding over the launch of the Vanashri project here on Monday, Jaggi Vasudev said the Vanashri project would be a mass-based movement with volunteers of the Isha Yoga Centre and other organisations taking part to protect the hills and its environment. He announced that cloth bags, in place of plastic carry bags, would be given to devotees wanting to climb Vellingiri hills, starting next year.

S R Balasubramaniam, MLA, Thondamuthur launched the Vanashri project. Santhalinga Ramaswami Adigalar, Pontiff of Perur Adheenam is also seen

Sadguru Jaggi Vasudev, founder of the Isha Yoga centre, addressing at the launching of Vanashri project, started by the Vellingiri Mountains Protection Movement, at Poondi near Coimbatore on Monday.

S R Balasubramaniam, MLA, Thondamuthur launched the Vanashri project. Santhalinga Ramaswami Adigalar, Pontiff of Perur Adheenam, who was the Chairperson at the function, said the movement should work to fulfil the needs and aspirations of devotees climbing the hills.